SUMMARY

I'm a growth-focused marketing expert with over 8 years of experience assisting companies with their B2B/B2C communication strategy, marketing funnel and demand generation. Recently I've been working on a go-to-market launch for a SaaS product, plus a project helping a VR platform enter a new industry, partnering closely with product and sales. I work from research and positioning to conceptualizing, copy, and production, then refine based on results. I like trying small ideas, seeing what clicks, and turning the winners into something repeatable.
